The Time of Our Lives

These are the times in which we live. We come and go...we move...we grow...we change...we see...we are blinded...the time moves fast...graduation...slow ...the days of exams. We hurry and we shout; we weep and we laugh; we love and are loved; we remember and forget. Whatever time brings we build upon it; we adjust, change, learn, grow. It is a time for living. Life is full and life is now the future built upon the past. We have become...THE TIMELY GENERATION.

We are a group of learners.

We are a part of a growing community.

We are ourselves.

The Timely Generation

Well fellow students, here it is! The book we've all been waiting for. This is the book that has caused, seemingly, much ado about nothing. It has been much ado about something. It is our book, a memory book, a history book, a reference book, a book—all that is left of our school days. We wanted it to be different because we feel we are special, yes, and different. We hope you are pleased. We hope you are proud as we of the staff are proud. We hope you think it's the best. We don't know. We can only hope.

The editor.

A Time To Say Thank-You

Because of her unselfish willingness to serve, this teacher has become an esteemed individual in the eyes of those who know her. Through her countless acts of kindness and understanding, always given with a buoyant smile, we have received untold benefits in the preparation for our adulthood.

The students will always remember her for her complete interest in them as individuals and her willingness to serve them. The Seniors will remember her for the part she contributes in their graduation and the feeling of success she implants in each of their minds.

To one of the most thoughtful and sincere persons we know, we, the Senior class of Central High School, dedicate the 1967 edition of the Spartan to . . . Mrs. Martha Power.

A Time To Honor

The Junior Marshals are outstanding Juniors chosen scholastically from their class to serve as ushers for the 1967 graduation exercises. They are: Evelyn Johnson; Marguerita Sandrock, Chief; Myra Craver; Linda Jarrett; Marie Shaw; Carolyn Crump; Patty Younts; Vickie Cope; Jeff Lookabill.

Lifetime Thrill

Popularity, personality, and beauty add up to the pleasure of being singled out for honors never to be forgotten. The pleasure is not so much the moment of recognition in a contest or parade, but in knowing that you represent the student body of Central.

Jo Williams and Mollie Davis exemplify the excitement and fatigue that all Sponsors and Queen candidates experience at Homecoming.

Pam Carrick was our representative in the Veteran's Day Parade.

Moments to Remember

Throughout the school year there are many incidents that occur that will always remain in the students' minds ...dances, assemblies, pep rallies, ball games, clubs, and the ultimate event—graduation. And when this ultimate event is achieved these are the moments we will have to remember.

A time to cherish.

A time to cheer, honor, and weep.

Students danced away the evening to the music of the "Countdowns" at the annual Christmas Dance.

Holidays Are Eagerly Anticipated

Melanie Hartley ably represented her school in the Christmas Queen Contest. The contest, a combination of beauty and talent, is sponsored annually by the Merchants' Association. Melanie played a piano solo, "Theme From The Apartment," for her talent presentation.

Central and Santa Claus usher in the Christmas Season.

The May Court Welcomes Springtime

When the first robins arrive and buds on the trees begin to appear, our school is graced by the selection of the May Queen and her court. Chosen by the students, these girls must have beauty, poise, and charm. The crowning of the May Queen is the main attraction during May Day festivities and everyone will have to agree that they do make May 1 seem a little brighter.

1966-67 — The Time of Our Lives

The time is now. The days come and go so swiftly. We grab hold but we must let go, but not forever, not wholly. Some days we hold in our memories and the time of our lives become timeless.

Moments of victory...

Moments of defeat...

Moments of open happiness...

ACADEMICS

Central has a fine group of men and women as teachers. They are not only successful in this profession, but they are stand-outs in their own community lives. Nothing is more important to a student than the advice and encouragement he gets from his teachers whether it is about a classroom assignment or a personal matter. With the modern courses in the new math, advanced physical education, and advanced literature and composition, the faculty is able to expand the knowledge of the students. They are always sacrificing their time and talents in an extracurricular activity by either coaching or sponsoring a club. It is with this that they lead the students to become the citizens of tomorrow.

A timeless man leads our timely generation.

The driving spirit behind Central High School's growth is Mr. D. H. Young, a man who is dedicated to his position as principal. Students have found that he is always around to be of service to them; he realizes their needs and usually meets them before they are voiced.

Under Mr. Young's guidance, Central was accredited into the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges this past autumn. Although it took the efforts of the whole school and community to attain this accreditation, a large factor was the way in which Mr. Young has made the school's philosophy and objectives become a reality, the manner in which he can discuss and defend these beliefs in any situation, and his own sincere dedication to these beliefs.

As Mrs. Young will tell you, "He tenderly puts the school to bed each night." We're not too sure about this. We believe it goes along to bed with him.

No, we don't let him rest at lunch either.

We find Mr. Young in a familiar pose in a moment of repose.

Security is help when you need it..

Two invaluable people around Central are Mr. Hodges and Mrs. Michael. It would be impossible for the office to run smoothly without the services rendered by Mrs. Michael as she does a variety of jobs—sell lunch tickets, sign notes, keep the school financial records straight, or anything else that one might need in an emergency. Mr. Hodges has a "full" job as Assistant Principal and teacher. He fills in for Mr. Young when he is away and he advises and directs the students; thus showing his ability to conceive their everyday problems. Many thanks go to these two people who make it their business to serve us.

Mr. Hodges shows Teresa how he wants this absentee card filed.

Preparing for another day, Mrs. Michael arrives early with a cheery smile to greet the students.

They Advise and Council

"Mr. Newman, I have a problem. I can't decide which college to go to." "Mrs. Hedrick, may I go to the clinic. I don't feel so well."

How often have these two persons heard the previous two lines. It seems that there is no end to the patience, understanding, and capable guidance service rendered by them to the students at Central. Whether it be an everyday crisis or the important choice of a college, students have found they can always turn to Mrs. Hedrick or Mr. Newman for advice.

Mr. Wilbur Newman is the first full-time guidance counselor in the history of Central High. He received his B. S. degree from East Carolina College. He is now doing graduate work at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Mrs. Susan Hedrick has served ably in the difficult capacity of Dean of Girls here at Central. She has proved to be an invaluable part of Central.

County & Local Board Work Behind the Scenes

We want to pay a special tribute to Mrs. Brinkley for helping us through our accreditation into the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges. We would also like to say thank you to the other county and local officers that helped greatly in Central's greatest achievement.

Advisory Committee: Carlie Beck, Chairman; Allen Godwin, Luther Pickett.

Language is

Is English really this much fun?

Throughout this past year, the English Department has played an ever increasing role in every student's studies at Central. Students have found that they can carry their knowledge of English into their other studies and activities, therefore making it not only interesting but a helpful asset.

Math: The Science of Numbers

Mr. Swicegood seems to be the only one who understands how to work this problem.

The goal of the Math Department has been not only to teach students the basic fundamentals, but to instill in them a sense of reasoning which they can carry with them throughout their everyday lives.

Efficiently and Effectively

Mr. Bobby Barbara—World History; Mr. Jerry Mayhew—Health & P. E.

We were very pleased to have with us this year two student teachers, both from Appalachian State Teachers College.

We again salute our fine custodians and cafeteria staff for a job well done.

To all of these people who have served us, we, the student body, say thank you for the fine jobs you have done.

Custodians: Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Styers.

Cafeteria Staff: Mrs. Annie Mae Miller, Mrs. Leora Davis, Mrs. Bessie Floyd, Mrs. Betty Ann Harvey, Mrs. Mary Briggs, Manager.

ACTIVITIES

So as not to let classwork take all our time, we find other channels of interest to supplement our wisdom. Our activities provide these valuable experiences unattainable in our studies.

Many new organizations have come into existence due to Central's growing student body and its desire for eager association with people and new ideas. We have added wrestling to the athletic program and our clubs include two new ones—the French Club and the Chess Club. These plus other traditional events provide a well-rounded extra-curricular program at Central.

Good Leaders are Made, Not Born

Words can't be found to describe an individual such as Reid Lookabill. This is partly because that is just what he is—truly an individual—one of a kind. Reid has been outstanding in athletics, his studies, and just as a person. As President of the Student Body, he has fulfilled his duties well and has added meaning and purpose to an office that is otherwise without significance.

"Hey, I'm a football star too!"

One of the many duties of the Student Body President is to act as master of ceremonies at assemblies throughout the year.

Leadership Paves the Way to Smooth Living

The committee chairmen and executive board share many responsibilities. In carrying out their numerous and varied duties, they, at all times must uphold the aims and principles of CHS, while at the same time, strive for its objectives.

The executive board discusses an interesting idea for the Christmas Dance.

HOMEROOM AND CLASS REPRESENTATIVES provide a link between the students and the faculty. They not only voice the wishes, desires, and complaints of each individual Central student, but also keep their respective groups informed as to what the Student Government is doing.

Achieved Through Service to the School

The main purpose of the CITIZENSHIP COMMITTEE is to encourage good citizenship by the selection of a person from each class as a Citizen of the Month. Mollie Davis, chairman, and Mr. Hampton, sponsor, preside at one of these meetings where a selection is being made.

The PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE is responsible for keeping Central in the news. Pam Heitman and Patty Younts make their weekly appearance on "High School Teen Time" over WBUY every Saturday throughout the school year.

Pam Carrick, Chairman of the PERSONAL RELATIONS COMMITTEE displays her warm smile along with that of Carolyn Tysinger as they cheerfully welcome visiting ball teams and referees with oranges at halftime of each home basketball game.

The RECREATION COMMITTEE is concerned with the social life of all the students. They plan and decorate for the Homecoming Dance as well as for sock-hops after the ball games. Chairman of the committee is Dorcus Harrison; the sponsor is Miss Aultman.

SCHOLARSHIP AND ATTENDANCE COMMITTEE members, with Teresa Davis as chairman, seek information from college bulletins. Another task of this committee is compiling the Honor Roll and Distinction Lists every six weeks.

Creative Talents Are Displayed At Assemblies

The ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE is in charge of presenting various programs throughout the year and conducting students to the auditorium. Whether the assembly is a movie or a musical performance, it is always thoroughly enjoyed by the students.

The Tams render their version of "A Summer Place" as competition in our annual talent show.

Ronnie Lanier and Darrell Parks portray two of the many children in the production "Cheaper by the Dozen." Even Sport gets in on the act.

The Assembly Committee: Chairman, Jane Owen.

Traffic Committee Promotes Safe Driving

The TRAFFIC AND SAFETY COMMITTEE is perhaps the hardest working of all other Student Government Committees. They are responsible for the parking of cars at ballgames and other school functions. They are also credited with the new everyday parking of students and the everyday direction of traffic after school.

Steve prepares to direct traffic after school.

The TRAFFIC AND SAFETY COMMITTEE: Chairman, Steve Gray; Sponsor, Mr. Don Hedrick.

Juniors Anxiously Await Coveted NHS Tap

The National Honor Society represents the ultimate goal in leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Juniors with a 95 average are tapped in the fall; seniors with a 93 average are also tapped at this time.

The main project of the National Honor Society is the White Christmas Drive in which food, clothing, and toys are distributed to needy families in the Central area.

The officers of the Honor Society are: President, Kay Gurley; Vice President, Eunice Doman; Secretary, Kathy Hunt; Treasurer, Vicki Grandolfi; Reporter, Jean Davis; Chaplain, Gene Edwards.

Third Row: Melanie Hartley, Valeria Kennedy, Judy Barnes, Reid Lookabill, Belinda Black, and Karen Black.

A refreshment committee from the National Honor Society prepares a tea after the tapping of new members.

Central High School's Band

From the very beginning of school, the band has shown great improvement. It has rendered its music on many occasions—every home football game, pep rallies, the Veteran's Day Parade, the Christmas Parade, and the many concerts given for school assemblies and for the P.T.A. meetings. A new Pep Band for the basketball games was also organized this year.

Flag bearers: Linda Kinney, Carolyn McNeely

Banner carriers: Sandra Hedrick, Sharon Andrews

Has the Timely Pace

Drum Majorette: Karen Regan

Majorettes: Debbie Briggs, Suzanne Gallimore, Debbie Warfford, Vickie Crotts, Martha Canady, Chief, Chris Barnes.

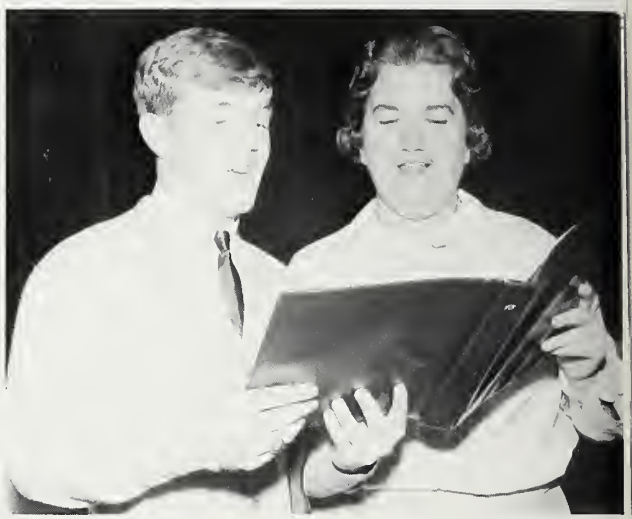
Chorus: A Melody of Voices

These are the sixty voices that make all the noise you hear during third period each day. Somehow, they are able to combine their talents for the many hours of enjoyment that they give to the students of Central and the surrounding communities. Each spring the chorus travels to different schools in the area and performs for elementary and high school students. Both are entertained by the variety of music.



Miss Robbins and David Brewer often combine their musical abilities to sing at school events.

Foreign Policy Is This Year's Debate Topic

Debating has recently become part of the school ctivities. Its purpose is to encourage participation in ıblic speaking. The debaters openly discuss matters of local concern as well as world issues. This is one of the best ways that students at Central have of expressing themselves.

The debaters are: Karen Black, Melanie Hartley, Chris Barnes Byerly, Nelson Penninger, Tenny Hunt.

French Club Grows as Enthusiasm Increases

Le Cercle Francais is one of the newest clubs at Central. he goals of the club are to interest each student of French ı the culture and civilization of the French people. The club offers the student a chance to receive extra-curricular activities such as songs and dances not obtainable in class.

fficers: Mary Beth Williams, President; Sarah Williams, ecretary; Marguerita Sandrock, Reporter; Tommy Younts, Vice President; Larry Story, Treasurer; Mr. Bennett, Sponsor.

Chess: A Game of Matching Wits

Gaining interest at Central is another new club, the Chess Club. They meet each Thursday during the club period and try to match wits. With a little response from the students this could be one of the best clubs at Central.

Science Club Promotes Interest In the Unknown

The Future Science Club is designed to offer to students interested in science a general knowledge of this field. Under the capable sponsorship of Mrs. Crotts, these students get a full picture of all phases of scientific research and development.

Officers: Treasurer, Dennis Summers; Secretary, Wanda Hunt; Vice President, Jane Young; President, Steve Thompson.

VICA: For the Vocational Minded

VICA stands for the Vocational Industrial Club of merica. Its purpose is to promote leadership and citizenship. The members are those of the printing class and the trades and crafts class. VICA held a Christmas party this winter, and it promises to be one of the most lively clubs in the future.

Printing Provides Skills for the Future

Each day the school activity bus takes the printing students to the Junior Home. Here they have an opportunity to learn more of this area of trades. Under the guidance of Mr. McGuire, the printing students print the school newspaper and the basketball and football schedules.

Mr. McGuire illustrates the operating of a machine to Eddie Wright.

Students Prepare For Their Adult

During National Education Week, no one is any busier than the F.T.A. They distributed some little articles of appreciation each day to the teachers. The F.T.A. also keeps the teachers at Central up-to-date by giving them literature on current news. Also, each month the teachers act as guest speakers giving helpful hints to the members.

Officers: Treasurer, Linda Burkhart; President, Eunice Doman; Vice President, Linda Jarrett; Secretary, Vickie Cope.

The Future Farmers of America Club participates in many outstanding activities. At the County Fair they are active in the Beef and Swine judging, and the Dairy judging. They attend the Convention at Raleigh, the Federation meeting at Denton, and the State Fair. As well as this, the boys have supervised practice and learn parliamentary procedure.

Lives Through FTA, FHA, FFA

The Future Homemakers of America held a Courtesy Week this year. Each day they provided a "snack" for the teachers. Another project was the contribution of clothes to the Sheltered Workshop during Thanksgiving. The club has scheduled a Mother-Daughter Valentine Banquet: they also plan a tea for the teachers.

FTA honored faculty during National Education week.

Girls learn homemaking skills in FHA.

Our Future Business Leaders

At the beginning of the year, the Future Business Leaders of America started working on their first projects. Much work was put forth as the club edited a student directory. A second project for the F.B.L.A. was the selling of doughnuts. The money obtained by these projects go toward attending the F.B.L.A. Convention in Durham.

Teresa, Mary, and Pat display the student directory.

Miss F.B.L.A., Teresa Davis.

Officers: Photographer, Linda Everhart; Reporter, Karen Skeen; Treasurer, Sandra Briggs; Secretary, Gaynelle Garwood; Vice President, Mary Lanier; President, Teresa Davis.

Character Is Developed In Civinettes

The Junior Civinettes have proved to be an active organization this year. President, Vicki Grandolfi, represented the club on REAP Day over WBUY. Their project this year consists of buying research books for the library.

Officers: President, Vicki Grandolfi; Vice President, Beverly Davis; Secretary, Linda Burkhart; Treasurer, Beverly Ijames; Chaplain, Beth Ann Palmer; Sergeant-at-Arms, Pam Carrick.

Vicki and Steve, coached by Mr. Swicegood, represented the Central Civinette and Civitan Clubs on REAP Day on WBUY.

Miss Junior Civinette, Vicki Grandolfi.

Drama Sparks Talent, Civitans Display It

Members of the Drama Club are chosen by filling out an interest form. They are then invited to join by old members; their qualifications are based on talent and interest. The Drama class members are honorary members.

The club generally sponsors an annual high school talent show and they assist the Drama class in play productions.

Promoting good citizenship is the aim of the Junior Civitan Club. This year Steve Parks represented the club on a special broadcast over WBUY. Officers: President, Steve Parks; Vice President, Herbert Frank; Secretary, Leonard Younts.

Monogram Contributes Backboards to School

The Monogram Club has been increasing each year; this year we have the largest membership so far. Acceptance of the Bus Drivers into the club accounts for this. As far as projects go, the Monogram Club may well be the most active club at school. The initiation consisted of a Slave Sale which lasted for two days. With the funds from this and that which was left from last year, the Monogram Club bought one of the glass backboards for the gymnasium. Two other projects which will aid in paying for the backboard is a car wash and a Powder Puff football game to be held in the spring.

Beauty such as this is hardly ever found except when the Monogram Club sponsors a Slave Sale.

Officers: President, Barry Burkhart; Vice President, Ricky Cross; Secretary, David Brewer; Treasurer, Jeff Lookabill; Programs Chairman, Tony Shaw.

Spartacus Supplies Everyday Information

Spartacus sponsor, Mrs. Hedrick and editor, Kay Gurley, discuss the coming edition of the newspaper.

One of the most important additions to the extra-curricular program is the school newspaper. The students anxiously wait for the end of the month when the SPARTACUS is issued. Not only do they have a variety of interesting articles in each edition, but the constant feature is the "Lucy Brown" column. The Journalism class is to be commended for making Central aware of school and local news.

SPARTACUS reporter, Randall Parks, interviews Coach Mast to get a hot scoop on the basketball team.

Publishing a newspaper takes the whole-hearted cooperation of each member of the regular staff and the Journalism class.

A Timeless Yearbook for A Timely Generation

Of all the books that a student comes into contact with, his annual is the most memorable one. This year we have tried to make it even more so.

No one knows the "blood, sweat, and tears," that have gone into this annual; neither could they ever hope to feel the closeness that we have for this story of the school year. Blood—the long, hard, hours we worked; sweat—the deadlines to meet; tears—the disgusting moments when the pictures didn't come back or when the students disagreed with the staff on the changes; the closeness—putting together "a treasure" that we hope most of you will be proud of.

Our sponsors for the 1966-67 SPARTAN are Mrs. Stiffel and Mrs. Power.

The annual staff consults with Mrs. Walker, of the Hunter Publishing Company.

Perfection (we hope!) comes out of chaos.

Cheerleaders Boost Spartan

Cheerleaders are the height of school spirit.

'eams Onward to Victory

t takes more than just eleven men to make a football eam. If you don't believe us, just ask these boys!

Central's football team had a winning season with a 6-4 record. A full moon and warm temperatures provided the setting for Central's first game of the season. The Spartans brought home a 12-0 victory over the Trinity Bulldogs. The team, however, suffered a setback when defeated the following week by East Davidson 20-7. October 21 was the big Homecoming game with arch-foe North Davidson. We all know that it helps to have the referees on your side. If you don't believe us, just ask North Davidson. The mighty Spartans came back, however, with a 21-7 decision over Randleman. As the season progressed, so did Central, bringing it to a close in full Spartan fashion with a 33-0 victory over West Davidson. Congratulations, boys, on a very successful season.

Somebody lose something?????

To aid the training program this year, a football camp was held for two weeks before the opening of school. Football practice began the fifteenth of August. The coaches and the boys worked hard to prepare for the coming games. The Spartan football team finished the season in second place in conference standings.

Barry Burkhart runs the extra point at West Davidson.

The Spartan starting eleven: Reid Lookabill, Paul Lookabill, Ricky Cross, Tony Carrick, Barry Burkhart Warfford, David Brewer, Donnie Floyd, Tony Shaw, Jeff Kenneth Cross, Randall Parks.

Spartan tri-captains for the '67 football season were David Brewer, Paul Warfford, and Reid Lookabill. Each is an outstanding player.

Dance Climaxed Homecoming Events

Homecoming Queen: Kathy Hunt.

Homecoming was the highlight of the football season. Arch-rival North Davidson turned out to be this year's opponent. Not only was there a large turnout of students, but also of Central alumni. North took a 14-6 decision, but the game was closer than the score showed.

Although we lost this big game, it did not put a damper on homecoming activities. When the crowd had assembled in the school gymnasium, queen candidates and sponsors were presented with their escorts.

Kathy Hunt, a pretty, blue-eyed brunette, representing the ends won the crown. The night was climaxed with a dance featuring music by the Speckulations Combo.

Lead singer for the Speckulations was our own David Hunt.

Queen candidates and sponsors enjoy a closed dance with their escorts.

Lookabill Achieves All-State Recognition

Six Central players were recognized in conference play. They were David Brewer, Reid Lookabill, Tony Shaw, Paul Warfford, Randall Parks. Jeff Lookabill received Honorable Mention.

Randall Parks led the team in tackles; David Brewer led in rushing and points scored. The leading pass receiver was Reid Lookabill.

Reid Lookabill, Central's outstanding end, was the school's first player to be named to the All-State Football Team.

David Brewer watches as teammate Reid Lookabill catches a perfect pass.

Harold Hoover cuts loose for more yardage at Denton.

J.V.'s and Frosh Show Determined Spirit

The Freshman football team had an admirable record of 3 wins and 4 losses. Losses were handed to the "baby Spartans" by North Davidson, Denton, and East. The Spartans won over Denton, Randleman, and West Davidson. Although this record doesn't indicate a great season, prospects look bright for several varsity greats.

The J.V. team had a most successful season sporting a 5-2 over-all record.

The future varsity football team will certainly prove to be an exciting combination of speed, strength, and agility.

Basketball Brings A Flash of Winter brought the sound of a bouncing ball against the hardwood floor at Central. Practice began early in October for both the girls and the boys, both under new coaches. The girls' coach is Mrs. Mary Newton and the boys' coach is Mack Mast. Under Mrs. Newton, the girls' team won the regular season conference with a 12-2 record. The boys' came on strong near the end of the season and finished in second place with a 11-3 record. Congratulations to both teams.

Freshman, Debbie Sexton, drives for a lay-up against Denton.

Adelia goes in for another two points while the other girls block out their opponents.

Red, Black, and Gray

Karen Regan, Martha Canady, Kathi Regan, Managers; Debbie Davis, Scorekeeper.

Our girls' basketball team was pre-rated for the season in the top four. They quickly showed their supporters that they were not just in the top four but on the top, but all good teams are capable of bad nights and this was the reason for the loss to West Davidson—the first conference game. It was undecidedly Central from then on; they swept by Ledford, arch-rival North, and the other teams, as they stood by and watched a scrappy Spartan team overtake them. In the last game of the season against Trinity, played on a blustery Saturday night, the Spartans went ice-cold and the blistering Trinity Team took a 49-46 decision. This did not move Central from the top spot, though, and we, the students, are very proud of their outstanding season.

Championship to Girls' Basketball

Basketball has been good to our girls this year. These future varsity players followed in their superior's steps. Although they didn't quite make it to the top position, they did come out with an outstanding record of 12-4, standing in second place in the conference. The girls will tell you that the most exciting game was that one against North when they beat the Lady Knights by 17 points.

Our J.V. girls did not win the tournament, but, then the best team doesn't always win it.

Rough and exciting action in the Randleman and Central game is typical of the basketball season.

Oh! That does hurt—the final score Central 33 and North 30.

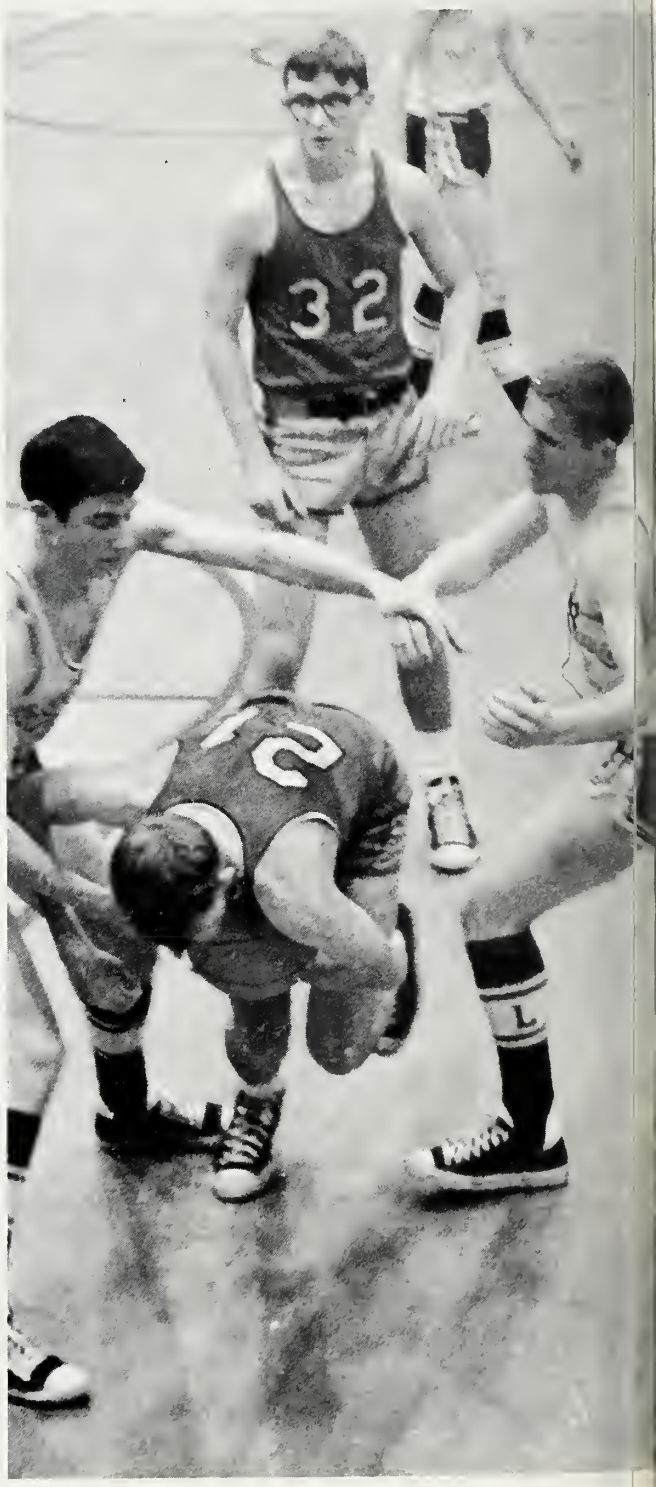
Boys' Basketball Season offered

Early season defeats did not undermine this group of determined boys. They put their defeats in the past and fought all the way to the end of the wire. They finished in fine fashion with a 11-3 record and second place in the conference. All Conference selections included Terry Mayhew, Reid Lookabill, and Harold Hoover from the Central team.

Terry plows through two Ledford players and draws the foul.



Reid Lookabill shoots for two against Randleman.

Reid captures the rebound and saves the ball for Central.

Heartstopping Thrillers for Spectators

Co-Captains Leonard Younts and Reid Lookabill.

Central pulled two big surprise upsets in the conference this year—one against North and the other against Ledford. As the season progressed, so did our boys; they were preparing for a kill. They beat arch-rival North before a packed crowd at the YMCA by a score of 52-45. The other game was under the lights at the home of the Spartans; they finished off Ledford by a score of 49-41.

Statisticians and scorekeepers: Pat Hedrick, Randall Parks, Mollie Davis, Keith Smith, and Debbie Davis.

J.V. Team Gains Experience for the Future

Co-Captain, Leonard Younts drives in for a lay-up against East Davidson.

To be varsity Spartans is the main objective of the J.V. teams. The boys' team, this year, sported a 12-7 record. They proved themselves equal to any team in the conference by beating 4-A West Forsyth and 3-A East Rowan.

Central Has Its First Team In State Finals

Not only did the Spartan teams make a good showing in the local tournament, but the boys' team went all the way to win the District 6 title and on to the state finals. The final game of the tourney against Stanley County was won in the last minute of play by a score of 50-52. This is the first time in the history of CHS that the Spartan boys have won a district championship. Congratulations boys on a job well done.

Terry drives against Ledford in the tourney semi-finals.

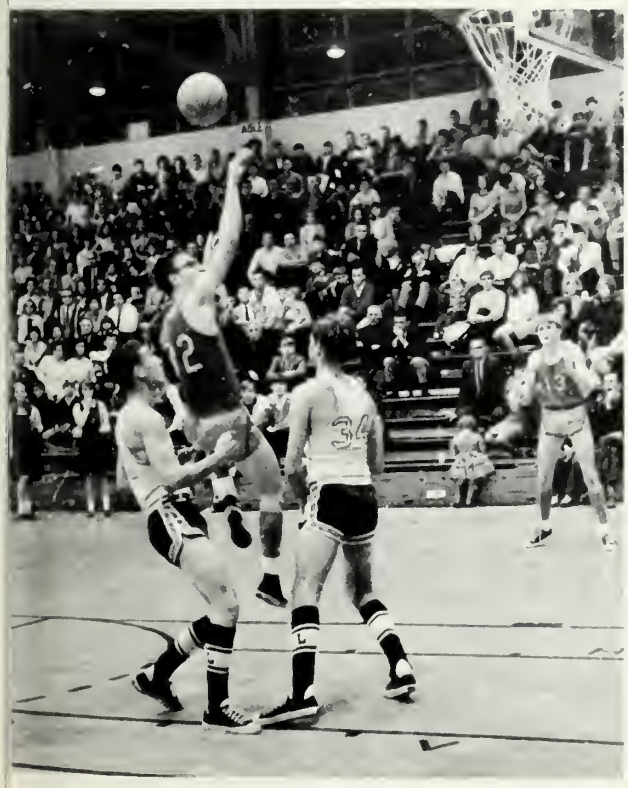
Lynn Kearney, an outstanding freshman, who received honorable mention in the conference, displays her corner jump shot.

Go, go get-um boys! Umph-ah!

Teams Lose In Conference Semi-Finals

Tournament time rolls around again! This year was quite different. The first rounds of play were held at the East Davidson gymnasium. There our girls trounced Denton girls by a score of 40-17; our boys did the same to Denton boys with a total of 64 points to their 50. The following week, the semi-finals and the finals were played at the YMCA in Lexington. Our girls suffered a terrible blow because they were beaten by a red-hot Trinity team in the semi-finals. The boys, on the following night, lost a heartbreaker to Ledford. After leading by 14 points at the half, Central was outscored in both final periods. Although our teams were out of the tournament, many received recognition. The girls received the conference trophy on Friday night and these Spartans received All-Conference selections: Girls—Adelia Hedrick, Debbie Sexton; Boys—Reid Lookabill, Terry Mayhew, Harold Hoover. All-Tournament selections were Adelia Hedrick and Harold Hoover.

Go! Go! Go, go, go! The Cheerleaders smile when we win and cry when we lose.



Doug leaves Ledford standing on the floor while he tries a "Bob Verga!"

Central's tournament queen was Pam Carrick, a lovely representative for our school.

Mast Predicts a Winning Season

Last year's baseball record was 3-7. Although our boys didn't come through with many victories, we were still very proud of them.

This year we have a new coach, Mr. Mack Mast. We are looking forward to a bigger and better season.

Scott Kepley is ready and waiting for the oncoming season.

Danny Clinard awaits that all-important catch which should result in a sure out.

Golf Gains Success As Well As Interest

Harold Hoover puts his "wee" brain to work concentrating on this drive.

This year is the third year that Central has had a golf team. Interest mounts each year as our team improves.

Last year Harold Hoover was the fifth best golfer in our conference.

Randall Parks makes a successful drive!!

Our Golf Team: Phil Strickland, Ikey Trexler, Darrell Parks, Randall Parks, Harold Hoover, and Coach Gooch.

Track Team Achieves an Unbeaten Record

Central's track team, coached by Stan Hedrick is expected to be the best in the conference. After being undefeated and winning the conference championship last year, Coach Hedrick is expecting all records to be broken.

Rick Cross clears 6'1" in high jumping. Last year he placed third nationally in the Junior Olympics.

An important phase of the track meet is the baton relay. David Brewer and Steve Grubb illustrate this skill.

Varsity Cheerleaders of Tomorrow

J.V. Cheerleading provides valuable experience for these freshmen and sophomores who have dreams of becoming varsity cheerleaders. This year's J. V. Cheerleaders are: Shirley Varner, Phyllis Jones, Sherry Ford, Marsha Asbury, Nancy Young, chief, and Judy Younts.

Natural ability plus hours of practice go into the making of a cheerleader.

First Wrestling Team in School's History

Wrestling is a sport which requires probably more conditioning than any other sport. It is an individual sport in which any boy can participate no matter how large or small he is. These boys who have participated in Central's first wrestling program are to be congratulated for their willingness to work, personal sacrifice, and their representation of good old Central. We're proud of 'em.

John Dollard pins Steve Kepley in an exciting match.

Richard Craver pulls a switch on Tim Robbins.

Cheerleader's Introduce a New Spirit

Cheerleaders Carol Bolling, Donna Scarlett, Jill Stutts, Beverly Davis, Patty Younts, Linda Jarrett, Kathy Hunt, and Valeria Kennedy line up to ride in the Veteran's Day Parade.

Kathy Hunt, chief, sells pennants to arouse school spirit before football games.

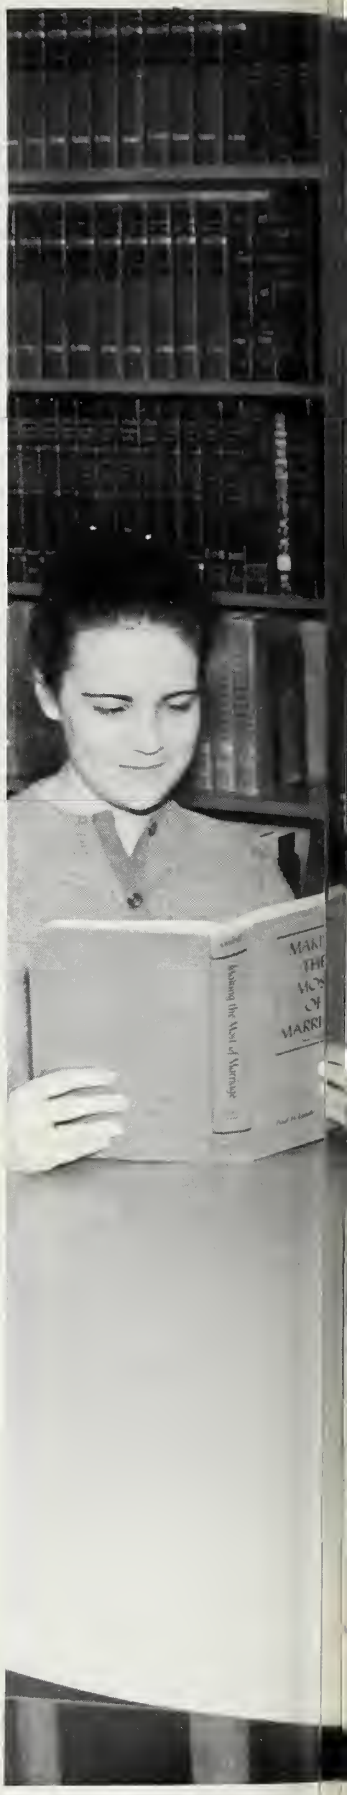
Cheerleaders celebrate a 51-33 victory over Randleman with the girls' team.

CLASSES

As the door opens each fall, students look forward to making new friendships and resuming the old, remembering their past experiences and anticipating more exciting endeavors; in doing so, they become united in their pride and respect for their school.

The spirit of the students shows that Central is "Number 1" in all phases of school life. This is illustrated by the unification in the pep rallies, the club parties, school assemblies, team victories, the candy and magazine sales, school dances, student government elections, May Day, and even a table of pals at lunch.

At the same time these students show their high regard for the school by setting standards and obeying them. Many participate in the scholastic organizations and many are honored for their work each six weeks period by making the Honor Roll or Distinction List. Central can boast one of the best student bodies in the state.



DATING

New Names . . . New Faces . . . New Places

As the new addition to CHS, the freshmen found that this year is a time to question. They wondered and asked just what high school life was like. They were awed by the teachers, by the subjects, and about finding their way to class. With much apprehension, the freshmen plowed their way through the crowded halls and piles of books for the first few weeks.

They found much more freedom and a chance to meet new friends and participate in many more activities. For the most part, they liked what they found and gradually molded themselves into the shape that freshmen take.

Sophomores Find the Year a Time to . . .

As sophomores enter CHS they soon realize that they are no longer at the bottom of the ladder; therefore, they must conduct themselves as such.

The typical sophomore does not have the dignity of the junior or senior. Instead he is the "care-free" guy—free of the simple naturalness of the freshman. It is a time to answer—to himself, to his teachers, his parents, and his friends. He settles down to follow a rigid schedule of subjects and to learn to accept a newly acquired sense of responsibility.

Wins First Place In Competition

Sophomores Rodney Owens and Allen Tysinger prepare for the coming track season.

The Junior Year is A Time . . .

In a world to themselves, Juniors step up in rank to assume their places as the backbone of the school. From the very beginning, the Junior year is a whirlwind of activities. It is the time when class rings arrive, to work hard at selling magazines, and desperately try to keep the Junior-Senior Prom theme a secret. It is a time to doubt; a junior starts to think seriously about his PSAT scores, his scholastic standing, and the class of '68. He meets these challenging problems with smiles, sighs, and tears, and waits patiently for his time to arrive.

Juniors and Seniors find that the Prom is the social highlight of the year.

Juniors ponder over Mr. Hodges history exam.

Seniors Found This Year

Seniors begin to prepare in the fall for the short time they have left at Central. It is a time to choose class officers, superlatives, mascots, class flower, motto, to order invitations, and finally to practice for the "night of nights" when they walk across the stage to receive their diplomas. The Senior Year is the last stretch from being a teenager to becoming an adult—it is the step in time that provides a turning point in a person's life.

The SPARTAN is proud to begin this year for the first time a new honor's section. Fourteen seniors have been selected into WHO'S WHO for their outstanding contributions to the school. We want to congratulate these seniors and hope that their record will continue to be just as fine throughout their lives.

This is the end of the beginning.

Class Documents Preserved In Spartacus

Teresa Davis, Testator, puts together the Last Will and Testament in which the Seniors leave their accomplishments to their underclassmen.

As the Prophet of the Senior Class, Mary Lanier writes an original story in which she prophesies the outcome of each Senior.

Cathy Young, Historian, traces the history of the Class of 1967 back through its four years of high school.

Last fall the Senior Class met and nominated fellow classmen for Senior Superlatives. The actual voting took place in homeroom the following few mornings. Finally this group of outstanding students was elected to the honor of being Senior Superlatives.

ADVERTISERS

The publishing of the 1967 SPARTAN was greatly aided by the support of the advertisers in the Lexington area. We, at Central, appreciate the interest that these local merchants have taken in us. The SPARTAN staff asks, in return, that you patronize and support them.
